CREDIT UNION GROWTH FORCES COMPLETE OVERHAUL OF LAW

Credit Unionists Laud Coverage

The Daily Courier has received a public ovation. Opening the B.C. Credit Union League's 20th annual convention at Kelowna Aquatic today, President A. R. Glen, of Nanaimo, told 500 delegates The Courier's coverage of the movement's greatest annual gathering was "the best he had ever known." Thunderous applause greeted his remarks.

Mr. William Dew, B.C. Central Credit Union president, concluded deliberations yesterday with a similar commendation. Tuesday, President Howard Hunter of C.U. and C. Health Services Society applauded coverage.

Mr. Glen reminded his fellow-credit unionists that press, radio and television coverage of the movement over the past year had been made a major assignment by all media. He urged delegates to maintain good press relations at all times since these, he said, are vital to the movement.

CONVENTION officials have set aside a special bulletin board at the entrance to the convention hall, upon which are displayed huge "paste-ups" of Courier editions of Tuesday, Wednesday and today, carrying convention news. League officials have ordered a large block of Couriers daily, which they plan to send to all world centres of credit unionism.

Courier circulation manager Ray Forrest reported today that "sell-outs" all this week have necessitated extra press runs. This is to accommodate not only delegates to the convention and local readers, but people throughout the Valley, who, unable to attend convention sessions, nevertheless are anxious to follow deliberations.

Mr. Forrest said extra copies should be guaranteed by telephoning 2-4445, or contacting Courier representatives direct.

Glen Describes Vast Expansion

By NORMAN GOTRO
Daily Courier Staff Writer

The little man's mite has become a mighty river of service.

British Columbia's credit union movement—involving 325 affiliated groups, 186,000 members, ten-of-millions-of-dollars, multi-millions in assets and growing rapidly—is bursting at the seams.

The B.C. Credit Union League needs newer, bigger quarters, more fieldmen and a streamlined modern provincial law. These, the better to protect, through its membership, the security and welfare of more than 500,000 citizens . . . about a quarter of the population.

This compelling picture was presented to a jammed, 500-delegate opening session of the 20th annual B.C. Credit Union League convention, at Kelowna Aquatic today, by President A. R. "Rod" Glen, of Nanaimo.

The president's report declared:

—ASSETS OF 23 B.C. credit unions are far beyond the million-dollar scale. One, at Dawson Creek, counts a $5,500,000 business annually.

—SIXTY-FOUR credit unions each have assets totalling well above $250,000 and are expanding swiftly.

—MORE THAN one-third of B.C.'s co-operative financial units are expected to qualify as $500,000 ventures by December 31, this year.

—EVERY WALK of life, all professions, many small businesses, dozens of communities have "joined up."

—BRITISH COLUMBIA families are flocking to the credit unions to seek security in an age when economic stability has become unpredictable and the future uncertain. Fathers declare: "Without the credit union I am lost!"

—AS A RESULT of such rapid growth, credit unionists, in the near future, will seek complete revision of the B.C. Credit Unions Act. (The act governs and controls operation of credit unions and was written with the aid of the movement's own experts, top government and private lawyers and brilliant UBC scholars.)

—B.C. CREDIT UNIONISTS are expected to make recommendations to Attorney-General Robert Bonner before their 1960 convention is called.

Delegates, observers and members of other co-operative groups overflowed the Aquatic ballroom, main floor deck, corridors and exhibition room to hear the president's report.

Another 400 to 500 visitors, wives, families and friends of delegates, roamed the city's shopping centres, beaches and other places of interest. The Aquatic refreshment room staff, headed by Dave and Mrs. Mills, are being kept busy continuously and civic officials said today the convention has been one of the largest in history.

The convention will continue tours through the Valley and city until Saturday when election of officers will be held. A banquet and dance will wind up the week-long sessions and special guided tours through the Valley and city will be arranged.

ITEMS OF INTEREST FOR CREDIT UNIONISTS

REAL ESTATE loans among B.C. credit unions were comparatively small in 1958 in contrast with Endowment Plan loans, President Rod Glen told the B.C. Credit Union League annual convention today.

But in the eight years since 1950, B.C. credit unions have sky-rocketed their assets from $12,000,000 to $80,000,000.

Number of loans made last year totalled 600,732. Amount loaned since 1950, at December 31, 1958, totalled for the eight years the staggering sum of $295,000,000.

Loans in force for this year, now exceed $70,000,000. Personal and endowment shares exceed $66,000,000. Total savings have jumped from $1,000,000 in 1945 to $70,000,000 in 1958, at Dec. 31.

HARD RECESSION luck hasn't worried Revelstoke and District credit unionists, Mrs. Irma Todd, treasurer of the rail centre's community group said today.

Mrs. Todd said Revelstoke is doing an annual business of more than $275,000, has 940 members, of whom 140 are junior. She said the credit union has proven its worth during the difficult period through which Revelstoke people now are facing.

Sommers, Gray Appeals Ousted

OTTAWA (CP)—The Supreme Court of Canada today unanimously dismissed the appeal of Robert E. Sommers and H. Wilson Gray, convicted of conspiracy and bribery.

Sommers, 48, former British Columbia minister of lands and forests, and Gray, 46, a Vancouver timber executive, both have been serving five-year terms in Oakalla Penitentiary. In addition, two of Gray's companies were fined a total of $19,250.

Sommers was found guilty of accepting bribes from Gray. The lumberman was found guilty of paying the bribes in return for favorable treatment in obtaining forest management licenses.

Their appeal was narrowed to two points of law: That the charges were laid too late—after a two-year time limit from the date of the alleged offence, and that Sommers was improperly charged as an "official" of the government.

The British Columbia Court of Appeal last March rejected their appeal in a 2-to-1 judgment.

Prison Terms Handed Out To Accused Trio

Two men who claim Edmonton as their home—James Joseph Bower, 32 and James Hillard Liscombe, 35—were sentenced to six months imprisonment this morning at the conclusion of a County Court trial that ran well over two days.

Judge Gordon Lindsay imposed the six-month sentences after the two men were convicted of charges of being in possession of safebreaking instruments and housebreaking tools. They were first questioned by police outside the Willow Inn during the night of May 9 and subsequently arrested.

Judge Lindsay this morning also sentenced Hans Martin Hansen, 38, to six months definite and six months indeterminate on a charge of uttering a forged document. Hansen pleaded guilty earlier this week but sentence was deferred until the judge consulted the probation officer.

Bennett Won't Interfere In Steel Strike

VANCOUVER (CP)—Premier Bennett said Wednesday night the British Columbia government has no intention of intervening in a steelworkers strike which has tied up construction across the province and become subject of a court action over Vancouver's Second Narrows Bridge.

"This is something which must be settled by management and labor," the premier said in an interview.

The strike, which started Monday night, has caused a halt on projects worth a total of $50,000,000. The men are seeking a 60-cent increase in the present hourly rate of $2.62 without loss of fringe benefits.

Kitimat Man At Parley Tho' Injured

Despite severe injuries suffered in a road accident en route to Kelowna, Kitimat and District Credit Union treasurer Tim Evans is attending annual convention sessions of the B.C. Credit Union movement here.

Evans said he felt quite cheerful although damages to his vehicle amount to $2,000 and he suffered a broken collarbone, facial injuries and a sprained ankle.

Kitimat's credit union effort envelops more than 1,500 members, of which 600 are school savings plan adherents, the northern treasurer told The Daily Courier. He said the kids have piled up $15,500 in savings and won five prizes for posters at the Aquatic display. Last year they took two prizes and in 1957 carried off five awards.

The Kitimat venture is another million-dollar operation annually, Evans said and they hope to better this figure this year.

LANDMARK GOES KAMLOOPS (CP)—The Seymour Street Baptist church, a landmark in Kamloops since 1895, is being torn down to make way for a new branch of the Imperial Bank of Canada. The church was originally built on Victoria street and was moved to its present site in 1908. A huge gold hand with a finger pointing skywards which surmounts the steeple will be incorporated in the new bank building.

B.C. Central Credit Union Re-Elects Dew President

B.C. Central Credit Union, central bank of the 186,000-member credit union movement, re-elected William Dew of Vancouver, president, late last night.

During Wednesday, the annual conference re-elected John D. Lucas, of the IWA credit union, Vancouver, to the directorate and elected were D. W. Bentley, Vancouver City Savings Union and Ian Strang, Vancouver, Dairyland Credit Union.

All will serve three-year terms. Vernon Credit Union's Lee Fox was elected for a one-year term.

Named to the supervisory committee were B. Richards, New Westminster, of the Provincial Mental Hospital Employees and Joe H. Chausse, of Vancouver.

Credit committee elections include Howard Morton, of Dairyland, for three years, and Roy Treasurer, Vancouver Firefighters, one year.

B.C. Central delegates were feted in Summerland, Wednesday night, by Summerland and District Credit Union, following a full day of reports and discussion. Summerland treasurer

Walter Bleasdale led the cavalcade and acted as guide and convener.

Visiting in Kelowna today and attending sessions of the B.C. Credit Union League conference at the Aquatic are numerous national, American and international representatives of the credit union movement. Plans call for at least one international speaker to be heard, probably Saturday, during the giant barbecue and banquet to be held at the Aquatic as well.

R. P. WALROD REPORTS:

B.C. Apple Position Threatened

Rapidly-rising apple production in non-Commonwealth countries with whom Britain wishes to trade, is threatening the future position of B.C. on the United Kingdom market.

The position of the British producers and those of other Commonwealth countries also is seriously affected.

R. P. Walrod, general manager, B.C. Tree Fruits, made these comments upon returning from the Commonwealth Fruit conference held recently in London, England.

Primary purpose of the parley was to consider the present and future position of Commonwealth producers in the light of current world production trends; present international trading relationships; other problems related to the re-imposition of specific duties against production from countries outside the Commonwealth, and that until such time as this can be brought about, present quotas from those countries should be maintained or reduced.

While such action on the part of Great Britain would be considered a violation of the terms and principle of the General Agreement in Trade, some production to both home and Commonwealth producers must be afforded against what can best be described as distress selling," he emphasized.

"As a result of over-supply, the apple market in the United Kingdom over the past several weeks have been disastrous to New Zealand and Tasmanian fruit growers. While not the whole answer, imports of low priced fruit from Italy and the Argentine have been contributing factors."

study of latest information dealing with costs of production, processing and prepackaging methods.

Mr. Walrod was one of four Canadian delegates attending the conference. Other representatives were from Nova Scotia, Quebec and Ontario.

The Tree Fruits head observed that while the horticultural council had subscribed to removal of import restrictions by the United Kingdom over the past few years, the competitive situation which now is emerging appears to require that some form of protection be provided for the U.K. market.

He said the Canadian delegation voted with the conference to support the principle of Commonwealth preference by subscribing to the re-imposition of specific duties against production from

Central Credit Union deliberated Wednesday.

President Glen interjected in his remarks today a recommendation to all delegates and their families "to relax tonight at Kelowna's fine new Triple A stadium (Elks Stadium) and watch a first-class baseball game under the lights between Kelowna Labatts and Oliver OBCs."

Glen told the convention League directors will recommend during the session:—Authorization be granted to proceed with drafting of a new Credit Union Act, to be presented for approval to the 1960 convention and to the Attorney-General some time within the next year.

—Drafting of new rules and constitution to govern credit unions.—Reduction of individual adult dues for 1959-60 fiscal year to 36 cents and 1 1/4 per cent of interest income.

—World Extension Program assistance through setting aside one cent per member at regular intervals.

—Credit Union National Association assistance through a second one-cent-per-member formula.—Subscription rates to the League official organ remain unchanged.

Mr. Glen reported that in the year 1958, B.C. credit union membership increased by 19,000 to total 180,434 at December 31. Increases since that time to the present convention number another 6,000. Officials expect this latter figure to treble by the end of this year.

Savings jumped $10,000,000 in the year under review, soared another $10,000,000 between January 1, 1959, and the present convention.

Chapter revision was undertaken in the past 12 months and the need for more field workers became apparent. Expansion of headquarters and branch offices became necessary.

PILOT PLAN

In connection with field work, a proposed pilot plan for northern B.C. is being studied.

The problem of a League audit service is under study. Thorns to overcome include manner of dealing with scattered populations.

The survey committee is continuing an exhaustive study of the question of revaluating credit union shares. Par value now is fixed at $5. Since this problem is tied to the study of the Credit Unions Act the current convention will receive no final report. It is expected however the entire subject will be examined at next year's annual meeting.

The president revealed that research during the past year indicated the feasibility of inaugurating a microfilm service, for credit unions, was not practical at the present time. He noted, however, that several large groups now have such a service.

Mr. Glen's report declared that an even tenor of credit unionism's major principle of "service to the common man" was maintained rigidly during the past year: money was kept moving through loans, supplies hit an all-time high, the official organ's circulation hit 60,000.

The president said 78 per cent of all credit unions in the province were visited by League staff members during the year. In four chapters 100 per cent visitation was completed and in four others 80 per cent.

GREATEST NEED

Mr. Glen urged the convention to bear in mind that adequate communication is the greatest need of the movement. To provide information and training, the League has gone beyond its own staff and drawn upon personnel and facilities of member credit unions, chapters, other Leagues, CUNA, the University of B.C., and Vancouver School Board.

The report also listed the following activities completed over the year: Officer workshops, treasurer

PRINCE GEORGE (CP)

Work has come to a halt on the $750,000 Simon Fraser Hotel here with steelworkers joining in the province-wide strike of the International Association of Bridge, Structural and Ornamental Ironworkers (CLC).

Contractors said the remainder of the crew working on the building will be laid off today because nothing more can be done until steelwork is completed.

COUNCIL CANDIDATE

PRINCE GEORGE, B.C. (CP) — Former alderman Howard Webb announced Wednesday he will be a candidate in the July 8 civic byelection here. Mr. Webb, financial secretary of International Woodworkers of America Local 1424, lost his seat on council in last December's elections. City haberdasher E. Enemark is the only other candidate so far.

ROTARY CHIEF

PENTICTON (CP) — Dr. Bill Wickett, a Rotarian for five years was installed as president of Penticton Rotary Club Wednesday night. He succeeds T. W. Bryant, Canon A. R. Eagles is vice-president, Bert Lintott is secretary-treasurer and Gil Laycock, Henry Laub, Dick Pritchard and Maurice Trumpp are directors.

SUBDIVISION NAMES

KAMLOOPS (CP) — City council has selected winners in three categories in a contest to find names for new subdivisions here. "Enclands," suggested by Mrs. John Martin, won the geographical section "La Roque," submitted by Mrs. J. Woodward in honor of the area's first fur trader, won in the historical section and "Sahali," proposed by Mrs. J. D. Sweet, a Chinook word meaning "high place," won the Indian section.

FIVE YEARS' JAIL

VANCOUVER (CP) — Russell McNeil, 42, was sentenced Wednesday to five years in penitentiary for possession of heroin. As he left the prisoner's dock he turned to Magistrate Oscar Orr and said bitterly: "Thanks very much for your generosity."

LOGGER KILLED

SECHLT, B.C. (CP) — A 38-year-old logger was killed Wednesday when struck on the head at a logging camp near this by a falling tree.

Lower Mainland coastal community. RCMP said the man was killed when a snag was whipped into the air by a slack line and fell on him at the Fleetwood camp at nearby Siwash Creek. The victim's name was withheld.

Canton Described As City Of Terror

HONG KONG (AP) — The south China metropolis of Canton was described today as a city of terror, its 1,500,000 people facing what may be its most catastrophic flood in a century. But the city's main dikes were reported still holding at mid-day.

Communist and anti-Communist sources here both painted a picture of possible disaster in populous Kwangtung province, across the border from Hong Kong.

Kiernan Says Shrum Rate-Setting Won't Hike Power Cost Generally

(Courier's Vernon Bureau)

VERNON — The B.C. Power Commission has accepted rate recommendations of the Shrum Commission, but there will be no general increase in rates, Hon. Kenneth Kiernan said during a visit here.

The commission will, however, implement adjustments suggested to the Shrum Commission, by acting general manager R. C. McMorde, subsequently approved by the three-man board.

Mr. Kiernan said changes which will be made are substantially those which will eliminate any inequity. No revisions are being made to power, primary power, or street lighting rates.

Elimination of the R-2 and R-3 rates, and the substitution of a single residential rate, is the major change.

SOME EFFECT

This will have some effect on every residential customer, since all will now be on the same rate basis. The change will become effective in July and will be reflected in electricity bills, on and after August First.

The new residential rate is expected to encourage greater use of major appliances. Householders installing such appliances will no longer find themselves in a new rate block. The single residential rate will continue to apply.

Main adjustment to commercial rates will result in billings in future being based upon the customer's maximum energy requirement from month to month, rather than on the present basis of yearly demand.

The adjustments will amount to about 1.4 per cent increase in overall revenue.

The Power Commission also will make some downward revisions in rates in smaller districts. In Merritt, Westbank-Peachland and other areas, adjustments to customers using major appliances will result in a slightly greater saving to them, and place them on the same basis as customers in some adjoining larger districts.

Fund Established For Fire Victim

SUMMERLAND — The Summerland Board of Trade has set up a fund to aid a Summerland resident in the loss caused in a fire. It destroyed the home of Charley Wharton near the municipal park in Summerland.

Wharton who lives alone got up about 3 a.m. to make some tea. The fire apparently started after he had lit a fire.

Wharton, who is over 80, endeavored to connect a hose to a tap but was unable to do so. The Summerland fire department was then called but was unable to save the house.

Wharton several years ago was made a life member of the Summerland Board of Trade for his community work and for maintaining the skating rink which he constructed on his property for the children of Summerland.

Penticton Losing Fight Over Route

PENTICTON — Board of trade and city council appear to be waging a losing battle in trying to have an alternate Highway 97 route past Penticton built on the east side of Okanagan River.

A letter from H. T. Miard, deputy minister of highways, to city council said the route west of the river was felt to be the correct one and would "serve the interests of Penticton quite well."

The letter was in reply to council's recent endorsement of Penticton Indian band's opposition to location of the alternate route through the Indian reserve land west of the river.

Mr. Miard said the east-side, strongly supported by the Board of Trade at meetings of the Okanagan and Boundary Associated Boards, had many disadvantages.

Vernon Elks To Fete Kids In Dominion Day Program

VERNON (Special) — Dominion Day, one week away, will be a big occasion for Vernon boys and girls 12 years and under, when Elks Lodge, No. 45, will host youngsters at a program including a parade, Dominion Day ceremony, and sports, in Polson Park.

Exalted Ruler Jim Inglis and Walker McNeil will be on hand to officiate.

A parade will assemble at Polson Park gate, by the Board of Trade office on 32nd St. at 1 p.m.

Youngsters, in different age groups, will be in costume. There will be decorated bicycles, tricycles and doll carriages, with prizes for best entries.

It is hoped to have a band and, of course, fine weather. Bishop A. H. Sovereign will address youngsters and adults on the significance of Dominion Day.

The flag will be broken on the pole in the Park Oval. After the ceremony there will be games and sports, with free treats for all the children.

Vernon Fire Brigade Fights First Blaze In Month Of June

VERNON (Special) — Wednesday's fire at 4.15 a.m. was the first blaze for Vernon Volunteer Fire department this month.

A general call went out to fight a fire of unknown origin which destroyed an old empty wood and shingle building at 34th Avenue and 30th Street. The structure has not been occupied since the war.

An investigation is under way today. Extent of damage is not known. E. E. Seymour is owner of the building.

Pat Graham Lions' Beauty Prospect

COURIER STAFF SPECIAL

VERNON — Seventeen-year-old Pat Graham came to Vernon from Revelstoke last year, but already she has become one of the most popular members of the high school crowd.

"She's interested in so many things," one of her friends explains.

Pat has other advantages, too. She's pretty, five-foot, three-inches in height, and has light brown shoulder-length hair and deep brown eyes.

The Lion's Club entry for the title of "Miss North Okanagan Regatta," Pat is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John C. Linney, of 3404 16th St.

The regatta is an exciting prospect for Pat, who lists aquatic sports among her favorite activities.

SHE SWIMS, likes boating and fishing, and plans to take up water skiing this summer. When she's not outdoors or busy with homework, Pat enjoys painting, sketching and sewing. She has an extensive stamp collection.

Pat is a Grade 11 student as the result of what she considers a very wise decision. She left school before the end of the term last June with the intention of discontinuing studies permanently. By September, however, she had made up her mind to return.

Pat is taking a commercial course, and will extend it if necessary after she graduates next year. She hopes to become a stenographer.

Zone Commander Praises Legion For Its Remarkable Membership Activity

The local branch of the Canadian Legion drew praise Tuesday night for their membership activities.

Speaking at the last general meeting before September, North Okanagan zone commander Art Woodley of Enderby said that Kelowna had done an outstanding job in obtaining new members, and urged that the branch set its sights on 1,000 by the end of the year, an increase of 282.

"Membership is the life-blood of the Legion," he said. "Without a goodly representation of veterans, we are unable to give the proper service to those veterans who do belong to the Legion."

INITIATE 16
A total of 16 members were initiated at the meeting, in a mass ceremony conducted by branch vice-president Jack Bews and Padre R. S. Leitch, bringing the total paid-up membership to 717.

Mr. Woodley also presented eleven 25-year service pins to Legionnaires of the branch: Don Ballislie, Ralph Brown, C. Kelowna, C. E. Campbell, Charles Hawes, L. L. Kerry, Dan McMillan, E. Mugford, Dick Stirling, Roger Sugars and Bob Whillies. Another veteran, Eric Tasker, received his in absentia.

Padre Leitch lauded the branch for its efforts in connection with commemorating the late P. F. Hilborn, past president of the branch, and past deputy zone commander, through the medium of a plaque and a "Freddie Hilborn Night," to encourage new membership, planned for September.

Mr. Woodley added his hearty approval of the actions taken by the branch, both in the plaque and the special night, saying that he had known the late Mr. Hilborn for more than 20 years, and said he felt sure that he would have endorsed the plan to encourage membership.

President Percy Maundrell was given an ovation for his actions in suggesting the special night, as the membership registered its approval of the plan. The branch ceases its business activities for the summer, with the executive carrying any decisions that have to be made in connection with operation before the September general meeting.

A gala opening of the newly-renovated lounge and recreation area in the Legion building will be announced in the near future.

Contract Requires Additional Fireman

Kelowna's fire department will be increased by one more paid employee shortly.

Applications from men interested in joining the department as a paid fireman were invited several days ago through the help-wanted column of this newspaper.

Fire Chief Charles Pettman said four men of the many who applied are to be interviewed. The final selection then will be placed before the city council for its official approval.

Council provided for an eighth fireman (exclusive of the chief) in the 1959 budget. Recently council decided it could see its way clear to get the additional man and authorized the fire chief to advertise.

Chief Pettman said Kelowna has needed another man for some time but since the new working agreement was approved, the need became more imperative than ever.

DOUBLING UP
Under the new agreement, it would have been necessary to hire a part-time driver-fireman in any event, so that the other firemen could have the time off to which they are entitled. At the present time, if a fireman becomes sick or has to have leave of absence, it means some doubling up of shifts by the other firemen.

With the new man giving Kelowna a permanent staff of nine, including the fire chief, the city then will be in between Pentiction and Vernon in relation to fire department strength. Pentiction has 10 and Vernon eight. Kamloops also has 10 firemen on the permanent staff.

Permanent Kelowna fire department employees, in addition to Chief Pettman, are Harry Locke, Sam Close, Joe Mildenberger, Fred Gerlinger, Alex McFarlane, Mike Durbin and Jack Roberts.

Residents Going out Of Town Urged To Publicize Regatta

The Kelowna Regatta publicity committee is calling on residents of the city and district to get on the bandwagon in publicizing the 53rd annual international Regatta, Aug. 12 to 15.

Publicity material is now available at the regatta office in the board of trade building and persons going to conventions are urged to "load themselves down" and "spread the word at the convention."

"Bump-a-tel" signs advertising the Regatta are now available at Sunshine Service, and salesmen or residents travelling up and down the valley, to the coast, or Kootenays are asked to place the signs on the back bumper of their car. The signs will be installed free of charge at Sunshine Service, and removed on return to Kelowna.

LIVESTOCK SALE
OKANAGAN FALLS — Total of 147 head of cattle from among the 175 offered were sold at the first of a series of cattle auctions arranged by the B.C. Livestock Producers' Co-operative Association.

A gala opening of the newly-renovated lounge and recreation area in the Legion building will be announced in the near future.

They do not interfere with opening and closing of the car trunk.

The publicity committee also pointed out immeasurable publicity can be gained if residents writing friends or relatives would include a line or two about the Regatta, along with the dates.

With the outstanding program being lined up for this year's famous water show every bit of publicity helps.

Premium On School Space This Autumn

PENTICTON — More than 1,300 students are expected to attend the Pentiction junior-senior high school this fall.

District superintendent of schools C. E. Clay reported to Pentiction school board that an enrollment of approximately 1,320 students is anticipated for the junior-senior high schools for the fall term.

Clay said this would necessitate the use of all available space in the schools, including basement rooms.

The 1958-59 enrollment in junior-senior high schools in Pentiction was approximately 1,160.

Flying Saucers Pose Problems For Solving In Near Future

So-called flying saucers intrigue the minds of many people. They have usually been associated with reputed visitors from other planets, but they are not so far from actuality in this world as some people might suppose.

A saucer-shaped "hovercraft" which will skim the surface of the sea, supported by a cushion of air, is being built in Britain. It is not an aircraft, because it does not rely on wings and forward speed for lift; it is not a ship because it travels a few feet above water. Despite its unusual features it is expected to have many applications in passenger and freight transportation.

The hovercraft is 30 feet long and 24 feet wide and is powered with a 450 hp engine which drives a ducted fan to provide air for lift and propulsion.

An early practical application of the hovercraft may be a fast ferry across the English Channel between Britain and France for vehicles and passengers. The first craft will probably weigh less than 100 tons, but the designers say that the craft's efficiency will increase with its size and that in the future craft weighing thousands of tons and travelling speeds of over 100 knots may be built. They aim eventually to build a craft carrying 1,000 passengers and 100 cars, travelling between 10 and 15 feet above the water.

An important feature is that it can be loaded and serviced on land, making harbours and expensive port facilities unnecessary. It could therefore operate in many parts of the world at present inaccessible to modern transport.

All this is most interesting, but before we risk our neck, there are one or two questions we would like answered. The first of these is if the ship is travelling, say four feet above the water and the water happens to be rough, is the roughness of the water's surface reflected by the hovercraft? Does undulate? In other words, if we get sick on water, will we also get sick on the hovercraft?

And what happens, when the ship is flying over land and comes to, say, a hundred foot cliff at the seashore? Does it simply resolve the hundred feet? It sounds a ghastly bit of business; not one, certainly conducive to tourist travel.

If the thing operates between three and fifteen feet off the surface, it must surely be subjected to changes in the earth's surface. Can it be mechanically adjusted to the earth's uneven surface quickly enough to provide a smooth ride?

And we would like to know, too, the legal aspects of the hovercraft. Because of its nature, supported by the ground and the cushion of forced air, it is not airborne in the same sense as an aeroplane, which is sustained in flight by the aerodynamic lift of its wings, or an airship.

Presumably, therefore, hovercraft would not be covered by legal statutes covering aircraft.

However, since it has no wheels which touch the surface of the earth, it cannot be considered as mechanically propelled in the sense of a motor vehicle. It is not a ship, because while over water, no part of it touches the surface.

Will the pilot need a sailing master's licence? Will he need a motor vehicle driver's licence? Will he require a flying licence?

It would seem that the hovercraft is going to force new regulations on our statute books. While at the moment these problems may appear purely academic, they can become real problems much sooner than some of us think.

THE TREADMILL

Administration Weakness Blamed For CBC Upheaval

TORONTO (CP)—Former production executives today blamed the biggest upheaval in CBC history on CBC administration weakness at Ottawa which they say has existed since A. D. Dunton resigned as president a year ago.

Robert Weaver, who resigned Tuesday as a radio program supervisor, described the cancellation of the program Preview Commentary, which touched off the upheaval, as "simply a sort of focal incident which has arisen partly because people see weak and uncertain leadership at Ottawa."

By day's end Tuesday, 28 production executives had officially resigned here because the administration had cancelled the five-minute radio opinion series on House of Commons business. In Montreal three more had resigned.

Some said the administration had "bartered away the integrity of national broadcasting" by making an arbitrary decision to cancel the program. Others said the production of all opinion programs. But it was apparent that a long-standing feud between production and administration was part of the cause.

Mr. Weaver blamed some of the trouble on personal idiosyncrasies of CBC acting president Ernest L. Bushnell and H. G. Walker, director for Ontario and the English language network.

The same theme was echoed by Frank Peers who as supervisor for TV and radio talks departments had led the dissident group.

He charged Mr. Bushnell cancelled the program because he had given in to "political interference," and then refused to discuss the matter with department chiefs.

MISUNDERSTANDING

Mr. Bushnell earlier had blamed the incident on a misunderstanding in the minds of the program men. He denied political interference.

He said the decision had been his and he cancelled the national network radio series because newspaper men who had expressed their opinion had not had time for sufficient preparation.

He described the substitution of Preview Commentary with a news report as an experiment.

Mr. Peers admitted that his search for an explanation of the cancellation "had produced no evidence that anything overt was

THE VICTORIA MERRY-GO-ROUND

By JAMES K. NESBITT

VICTORIA — This time last year Premier Bennett was plunged into political gloom because Social Credit had been completely knocked out of the House of Commons.

Now the premier's in political seventh heaven because of the astonishing victory of Social Credit in Alberta, the heart and home of Social Credit in Canada.

Thus it ever is with politics, ups and downs, and constant excitement. The premier, it must be admitted, has good reason for jubilation as he studies the Alberta result, for he sees in that result a sure sign that his government will go back in B.C. stronger than ever next year, or whenever he calls an election, or when time to suit his political convenience.

Perhaps not good what has happened in Alberta—four oppositionists, each against the other in politics, trying to offer opposition to a 61-seat SC legislature! Premier Manning can do anything he wants.

This column, looking at Alberta, once more reflects that once a new party gains control in Canada, it holds on a long, long time, being re-elected time and time again. The new parties that have cropped up in recent years in this country, once elected, have not yet been defeated, and there's no sign yet they're going to be in the visible future. Look at Union Nationale in Quebec, the CCF in Saskatchewan, Social Credit in Alberta and British Columbia.

This hard-boiled fact frustrates Liberals and Conservatives, who have all along been convinced that one of these days they'd throw out the new parties and we'd be back to the old days of the dominant parties, the old days of Liberals in and Conservatives out, and then Conservatives in and Liberals out, as still goes on in federal politics. But those days, provincially—in western Canada anyway—seem as gone as last winter's snow.

VIEWS ON YOUTH

Premier Bennett, forgetting politics for a short time, came up with a few views on modern youth, and a very good suggestion for them. The premier thinks perhaps modern youth is getting lazy, though he wouldn't put it that way, for fear of infuriating their parents, who might tend to get even with him in the polling booths.

The premier said: "Let the youngsters get up in the morning and run a mile or half a mile. These days, when everybody has transportation and cars, we need to encourage healthy exercise."

Mr. Bennett, of course, might just as well have saved his breath. Few youngsters are going to pay the slightest attention to him. Run half a mile early in the morning? What nonsense, Mr. Premier!

Most youngsters can hardly get up in time for school, after the late TV show, and, as far running, why, they'll walk, but the barest minimum, and even then think they're hard done by. A lot, the CCF in Saskatchewan, of them thumb rides for two blocks.

A good effort, Mr. Premier—you're quite right—but you're not going to get anywhere with this have all along been convinced

Pugh Returns From Parley; Finds Talks Very Interesting

Special to The Kelowna Daily Courier

OTTAWA—Sporting a mellow-brown tan won on the beach at Lyme Regis, Dave Pugh, member for Okanagan—Boundary, stepped off the plane from England at Ottawa's Uplands Airport into the cold, drizzly weather that has plagued the capital for the past week.

He had just returned from 10 days in London attending the Atlantic Congress, held to commemorate the 10th anniversary of the founding of the North Atlantic Treaty Organization (NATO).

Mr. Pugh's opinion of the trip: "We achieved all we set out to do, which was above all to show the world a united front and to establish between each country, on a personal level, better understanding and friendship."

Two incidents stand out as highlights for the B.C. member.

The first was a two-hour private conversation with a leading French Socialist MP.

"I think it was the most interesting of all the many personal talks I had with delegates from the other countries, and one of the reasons we were sent to London to get to know our colleagues in other NATO nations," he said.

"We discussed the problem of Communist infiltration into trade unions, minority groups and front organizations."

EXCHANGE IDEAS

"Although our political opinions were entirely opposite and she was French and I Canadian, we were able to swap ideas and expressions and I think both of us, and certainly myself, came away the wiser."

The second incident Mr. Pugh remembers most clearly was the official opening of the week-long congress, held in historic Westminster Hall, where the Queen and British Prime Minister Harold Macmillan spoke to the representatives of 14 different countries.

Delegates were in their seats in the flag-stoned hall at 10:15 a.m., and the Queen was due to arrive at 10:30. At precisely five minutes before the half-hour a troop of Beefeaters from the Tower of London, clad in their Tudor uniforms, filed in to take their places around the dais.

Minutes later Mr. Pugh saw a Canadian delegate lean over to an Englishman sitting beside him and say, "In 20 seconds the Queen will walk into the hall."

The Englishman, without turning his head, replied "I think your watch must be 10 seconds slow." And he was right because at exactly 10:30 by his watch the trumpeters let out their blarney and delegates rose for the Queen.

"That incident, Mr. Pugh said, was typical of the split-second timing of the entire conference.

Work began at 8:30 a.m. when Canadian delegates—Senators, MPs, industrialists and other leading citizens—would gather for a group discussion.

During the morning and afternoon sub-committees would meet, conduct their affairs with the aid of simultaneous translation in English and French, and prepare resolutions to be considered by the various committees and eventually the entire congress.

Mr. Pugh was a member of (the economic sub-committee, one of the most important of the Congress. It tackled the tricky question of how to knit closer together for mutual advantage the economies of the NATO countries.

TOUR ENGLAND

First seven days of the trip were spent in this way, committee and sub-committee meetings interspersed with plenary sessions of the entire Congress through the mornings and afternoons and in the evenings delegates would split up for various social functions, there to rub shoulders and converse with their colleagues from France, Greece, Italy, Holland, Denmark or Germany.

When the Congress finally ended, its declaration and recommendations drafted, Mr. Pugh found himself with just over three days on his hands.

One was spent in Bristol visiting an aunt, another in Surrey, visiting the town where he spent one year during the war quarantined with the Seafarers—"everybody I remembered had moved away; even the police couldn't remember any of the people I had known"—and the last day at Lyme Regis on the south coast collecting a sun tan that would have done credit to Florida.

U.K.'s Booming Trade May Result In Tax Reductions

By M. McINTYRE HOOD
Special to The Daily Courier

LONDON — Britain's booming trade and the substantial narrowing of the gap between exports and imports, are likely to bring about three moves that will be welcomed on both sides of the Atlantic.

May's exports beat all previous records. On the month's dealings, when the account books are closed, Britain will show a handsome profit in the form of a favorable balance. And out of this continued improvement in the trade picture some interesting announcements can be expected in the near future. They are:

First—Hotheaded Amory, Chancellor of the Exchequer will be able to announce still further relaxation of restrictions on dollar imports, to improve living standards in the United Kingdom.

Second—The present figure of 200 pounds in travel allowances for visitors to Canada and the United States, will probably be doubled in the near future, as a step towards allowing unlimited travel allowances before the end of this year.

TAX REDUCTIONS

Third—There is every likelihood of further tax reductions because of the spectacular buoyancy of the country's economy, and the passing away of the bogey of inflation. First step in this direction has already been announced. The government's Finance Bill, which puts the budget provisions into effect, will be amended to provide a reduction of 25 per cent in the entertainment tax on motion picture theatres.

And on top of all this, there is the assurance that unemployment continues to drop, by substantial figures, and the next monthly statement will show another drastic improvement in that direction.

WHITEHALL EXCITED

It takes something unusual to get the political pundits of Whitehall excited. They were excited over the May trade figures. Exports for the month, at £299,200,000, were the highest ever, some £3,000,000 better than in April, the previous high month. Imports were down by £35,000,000 to £310,900,000. Re-exports were over £10,000,000. The visible trade gap was down to £1,500,000 for the month, the lowest figure since away back in the days of Queen Victoria when a start was made in keeping such statistics.

POLITICALLY USEFUL

Politically this is powerful ammunition for the Conservatives. When all the visible and invisible earnings for May are added, a considerable surplus of earnings will be shown. With that kind of an arm will come better times for all in Britain, with a return of the days of jobs for all.

Tory party chiefs are again hoping for an early election, to strike while the iron of booming trade and business is hot. There is talk of a September election, before the normal economic slide a little backwards in the autumn becomes noticeable. But with the prime minister unwilling to hold an election while the international scale hangs in the balance, a September election does not seem in of our hearts.

WINNER OF BUSINESS, PROFESSIONAL WOMEN'S AWARD

Future teacher Miss Irene Skubiak, last year's winner, has once again been chosen to receive the $150 bursary awarded by the Business and Professional Women's Club annually. Presentation of the award was made by Mrs. John Hankey, regional director of B & P women's clubs, at a short ceremony this week. Miss Skubiak, 19, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Michael Skubiak, 1986 Richter St.—(Courier staff photo, prints available.)

Bursary Winner Will Continue Studies At UBC

Mrs. John Hankey, regional director of South Okanagan Business and Professional Women's Clubs, presented Miss Irene Skubiak with a $150 cheque at the Kelowna club's final meeting of the season, this week.

Miss Skubiak won this same bursary last year, upon graduation from Kelowna Senior High School. She will pursue her studies at the University of British Columbia in third year education this coming year.

After the "indoor picnic" dinner served at the home of Mrs. G. D. Herbert, the club heard Mrs. E. H. Felt's interesting report of the provincial conference of Business and Professional Women's Clubs held at Pine-woods on the Hope-Princeton Highway, last month. A pleasant drive completed the daylight hours of the evening.

Vice-president Miss Pamela Dyson officiated in the enforced absence of Miss Mona Bent, president of the club.

It is expected that two carloads of club women will accompany Mrs. Hankey to Princeton this coming Sunday to attend a regional meeting of South Okanagan clubs.

Hospital Board Accepts Gift Made By Junior Hospital Auxiliary

The Junior Hospital Auxiliary has presented to the Kelowna General Hospital a further instalment of individual bassinets; being part of a continuing program to refurbish the entire nursery with individual rooming-in bassinets. This recent donation of six brings the total number of new bassinets up to 12.

Handed over to the hospital in the board room this week, the bassinets were received by Mrs. A. S. Cormack on behalf of the hospital board. Mrs. H. R. Henderson, president of the Junior Hospital Auxiliary, made the presentation.

Mrs. Cormack expressed the board's sincere appreciation and grateful thanks for the continuing support of the hospital by the Junior Hospital Auxiliary.

Provision of new equipment at the hospital is undertaken to a marked degree by interested groups and organizations, and "The Junior Hospital Auxiliary does a tremendous job, not only in giving of their own time and money to the hospital but in stimulating interest in hospital affairs throughout the community," she said.

Mrs. Cormack also expressed the board's sincere appreciation of the undertaking by the Auxiliary to give $800 in the year

Delightful Table Setting Idea For Attractive Summer Meals

By ELEANOR ROSS

One of the nicest ideas for a summer table setting is a snow-white organdy cloth over mint-green felt. The cool color is attractive enough to make any meal inviting. Especially so during the warm weather months.

Center the table with yellow flowers, add pretty china and colorful glassware, and your happily surprised family will think you're giving a party.

YOU CAN BUY FELT

You can buy felt by the yard and cut it to size with a scissors. No hemming is necessary. By covering the felt with an equal amount of plain white organdy and giving it a narrow hem, you'll have one of the prettiest and most easily devised table coverings you've ever used.

Of course, the felt doesn't have to be green. But this is a cool color.

If preferred, select any color of felt that blends best with your favorite china.

Organdy overlay cloth is both easy to care for and quite suitable. If it's nylon organdy, it won't even require ironing. White net, which is prettily cool and dainty, would also look nice. The type used for window curtains is best for the overlay cloth.

USE PLAIN COTTON

For the under layer, instead of felt, you could use a plain cotton in some favorite color. Basically, it's the idea of two layers of fabric, one transparent, that gives the delicate, dressy look.

Because of the notion of saving all the best table-setting ideas for parties, daily meals suffer from a lack of interesting settings. Yet some of the loveliest settings for daily meals are easy to create.

NO EXTRA BURDEN

Fabrics that can be machine-washed, that need no ironing, certainly put no extra burden on the homemaker. And there is such a wide variety of these fabrics, some simply exquisite. Moreover, when you're setting the table, how much trouble is it to spread one cloth on top of another? Just try it; see how the family reacts.

PINK-AND-WHITE

A recent table setting was built around a pink-and-white, polka-dotted cloth, enhanced by a centered pink floral arrangement, with touches of green.

Ever so cool and ever so pretty! Now for a word of caution:

You should plan meals so that the colors of the food won't clash with the color of the cloth. A tomato salad served on a pink-and-white tablecloth won't make anyone very happy.

The very fact that you have to think in terms of color harmony—in both food and setting—gives meal-planning a certain zest, a certain absorbing extra dimension.

SUNTIME IS FUNTIME WHEN YOU SERVE 'UNION' TABLE READY MEATS.

LASSIE AND HER BANG-TAIL

A happy young lassie is 19-year-old Susan New, of the Oakville horse racing family. The comely young horse owner is planning to race her "Solarway" in the forthcoming Queen's Plate race in Toronto, which will be attended by Queen Elizabeth and Prince Phillip. Solarway a relative of Native Dancer, is rated fairly highly in racing circles, but will have a record entry to contend with in Canada's most lucrative and famous race.

Cancelled Fight Fixture Makes Ball Coach Happy

News that the Patterson-Johansson battle is cancelled may fill Elks' Stadium to capacity tonight. Coach Hank Tostenson, following his announcement that the public address system would carry the fight until game time, couldn't suppress a grin at the news that the night fixture between the heavies in New York will be off, and the OMBL night baseball game between Kelowna and Vernon OBC's will have lost the sharpness of competition in their long lay-off.

SKIN DIVERS PLAN CLEAN-UP OF UNDERWATER BEACH AREA

The Ogoogo Skin Divers' Club are holding a general meeting Sunday, June 28 at 1 p.m. in Mezzanine Room of the Memorial Arena. Color slides taken in the ocean around Vancouver Island will be shown. Following meeting the club will go to the Aquatic and clean up the underwater beaches of glass and debris on both sides of the Aquatic, and will stage skin-diving lessons after the beach-cleaning. Anyone attending should bring swimming gear. Instruction will be handled by Lance Tanner, John Tanner, and Ken Wigglesworth.

Blue Caps Turn Tables In King's Stadium Tilt

The Blue Caps turned the tables on Rutland Rovers last night in King's Stadium. The peppery young Caps turned on the heat in an eight-run, fourth-inning route that overwhelmed the league leaders, who were wearing a 6-4 lead at the time, to come away the victors, 15-8.

Al Horning was the starting chucker for the Caps, relieved in the sixth by Buzz Jones, while Al Manarin and Rath shared the chores for the losers. TOOK CHARGE The Rovers took charge in the first frame, on a walk to Moria Koga, an error on Hugh Stewart's blow and a single by Bob Campbell, to score two runs. In the third, the Caps hit the scoreboard as Horning hit, Ed Kilebski walked, and Rod Gagnon, George Reddick hit, counting four runs for the Caps and moving them into the lead. Sparked by John Senger's triple, the Rovers came up with an answering four-run rally, to take the lead again, wearing a 6-4 advantage.

Swedes Are Wild Over Their Ingo

GÖTEBORG, Sweden (AP) — Interest among the Swedes in tonight's heavyweight title fight between their unbeaten idol, Ingemar Johansson, and champion Floyd Patterson has reached feverish heights. There never has been anything like it, especially here in Ingemar's home town, except possibly when Sweden's Gunder Haegg was smashing world mile records in the 1940s. The local papers, from front to back, have carried all available reports from the United States. The big national dailies have given as much as four pages out of 20-odd to news of the fight.

Red Caps Out In SOK'M Loop

Rutland Red Caps wound up their 1955 SOK'M season Monday night in Polson Park, with a stinging, 14-1 defeat at the hands of the league-leading Vernon club.

Not content to hang up their spikes yet for the season, however, the 'Caps are planning on a SOK'M ball tournament in Rutland for Sunday, July 5, and have had a response from several clubs.

Vernon's Bud Main struck out 11 Red Caps, allowed only five scattered hits in the nine-inning semi-final in Polson Monday. Rutland got one run across in the first on a hit by Jim Gray, a sacrifice by Wayne Horning and a double by Rieger, but went down in one-two-three order for most of the game.

In the third inning, Rutland loaded the bases but failed to make it pay off, and starting pitcher, Horning, had to be replaced with an untired reliever, Alvin Church, a short-stop.

Church held the Vernon club to two more runs in four innings, but he tired and Vernon added five in the seventh and three in the eighth.

ARMSTRONG SURVIVES OVERNIGHT CRISIS
SPOLETO, Italy (AP)—Jazzing Louis Armstrong developed a heart condition and weathered two crises today. Three noted Rome heart specialists were called to determine whether he could be moved to Rome.

Doctors said they feared the New Orleans-born trumpeter developed a heart disturbance after he appeared to be recovering from pneumonia.

Armstrong survived a crisis at 2 a.m. but drifted off to sleep despite a rise in his temperature. Doctors said he awakened during the morning and passed through another crisis at 1 p.m.

Aces Were Wild For 16th Time

Aces were wild last night. Kelowna's vaulting softball lassies, the Super-Valu Aces, wanted the Armstrong gals 13-0 in Vernon, to fatten their league lead, and continue their almost unanimous winning ways in league play.

Sunday, the Aces will taste southern competition when they host the Peach City so-baller in an exhibition twin-bill in King's Stadium, with games times 1:30 and 4:00 p.m.

Pitcher Olive Pope allowed only three little singles to the Cheese City gals in the victory, with the Aces' clouters hitting 19 off S. Brown.

LED AT PLATE
First base power swinger Anita Stewart led the Aces' at the plate with two singles, a bunt and a home run in five times at the plate, for a scintillating performance, and pint-sized pepper-pot Judy Bichel hit a four-for-five also.

Bichel singled in the first but was thrown out on a fielder's choice as Shirley Lesko drove one to third. An error by third let Mary Weider on, and Lesko was nipped at first. Stewart clouted out her circuit blow, scoring Weider and Martha Lans-

Hotspurs Hungry, Says Coach Bob
The Hotspurs are a hungry soccer club. In the words of Hotspurs coach, Bob McKinstry, "I seem to have a bunch of cup-hungry guys on my hands."

Following the best mid-week workout they have had all season, the players themselves were exuding confidence over Sunday's cup match against Revelstoke Juventus, a second-round encounter leading to the finals, in City Park oval at 2 p.m.

The Spurs, former valley champs, have been picking up in the latter part of the season and made some line-up shuffles that they hope will spell victory. Whichever way it goes, it will be a tough tussle as the north-ers never give up.

INDIAN BASKETS
Weaving of fine baskets is an historic craft among the Lillooet Indians of southern British Columbia.

Both of San Diego's runs came across in the seventh inning, Bill Ransom's single, a walk, Gene Leek's single and Rod Gruber's bases-loaded single did the damage.

Solons nipped Spokane's Chris Nicolosi for nine hits, but the league leaders managed to dent the scoreboard only in the sixth on a walk, an outfield fly and Mike Krsnich's single. A crowd of 9,329, a record for Spokane, watched the Indians' clutch the victory with two runs in the second on a pair of singles, a sacrifice, a sacrifice fly and a two-base error.

THE MOUNTIES FAITER
The Mounties, down 5-2 going into the last of the ninth inning, picked up two runs on Jim Dyck's four-bagger but they couldn't put across the tying or winning runs. Billy Wilson slammed out his 16th home run of the season for Phoenix with a mate aboard in the second inning.

The Beavers, who lost ace pitcher Howie Reed earlier in the day, scored the only run of the Portland-Salt Lake City game in the last of the ninth inning. George Freese's bases-loaded single was the winning blow. Duane Pillette worked the full route for Portland, giving up three hits. Dick Hanlon, who tossed a five-hitter, was world boxing champion, clash tonight in their long-awaited title fight. The 24-year-old New Yorker, is finally determined to win against his fifth defence of the public's full acclaim, and crown, was a 4-to-1 favorite to Ingemar Johansson, just as day to beat back the challenge eager to become Sweden's first of the undefeated 26-year-old

Summer Was Reluctant But Calendar Kept Rolling

By GEORGE INGLIS
(Courier Sports Editor)

Summer may have been a long time in coming, but the calendar hasn't stood still.

The leagues that pack up activities for the summer are right into their play-offs, the annual training camp of the B.C. Lions is just around the corner, baseball tournament time is upon us, and the water sports are starting to hum.

THE NEWEST ADDITIONS TO THE BASEBALL SCENE, locally, have fared better than expected in their first year of operation.

The Cyclones, Kelowna's entry in the SOKM league, have covered themselves with glory, winning their way right into the finals against the Vernon club, long the undisputed champs of that class o' baseball.

No matter how they fare against Vernon in the best-of-three series they start tonight in the northern city, the Cyc's should have the unreserved admiration of the Orchard City for the way they conducted themselves, operating with a minimum of assistance and still managing to make such a terrific showing in their first year as an organized entity. Should they beat Vernon, it will be the stuff that dreams are made of.

The Chiefs, in the South Okanagan junior league, are also a first-year entry, and have managed to win their share of ball games, and have a lot of fun during the season, showing some brilliant prospects for future senior ball.

And Kelowna's Little League, operating in its sophomore season, has taken on the task of hosting the B.C. Interior play-offs this year, which will prove to be a big task for the local officials, and one they will be able to use plenty of help to accomplish. It should also bring some high-calibre entertainment for fans of kids—and baseball.

ONE OF THE "SILENT" SPORTS on the local scene is soccer, and the Orchard City has one of the best clubs in a while carrying their colors this year, and ready to do battle in the second round of the Royal Cup play-offs this Sunday, when they host the Revelstoke Juventus.

Last weekend the Hotspurs, as the Kelowna club is called, came up with a decisive, 4-1 victory over the North Kamloops Rovers in their first round of cup-ties giving them a berth in the second round, in which they drew the Juventus.

The win sharpened up the boys' cup fever to the knife-edge that can produce victory, and the practice on Tuesday night was one of the best-attended this season as they sought to sharpen up their offensive play for Sunday. A victory will put them up against the winner of the Vernon-Kamloops series, played in Vernon the same day.

Why not get out and cheer them on?

ON THE SENIOR BASEBALL FRONT, recently re-activated with the termination of the flood-light installation, things are going to hum this month, as the Labatts host two tournaments, play several exhibition games, and try to catch up on their league games.

They host the Oliver O's tonight in league play, the Vancouver Dufferin Hotels Saturday in exhibition play, and have their Dominion Day tournament slated for next Wednesday. Both the Oliver Club, until recently tops in the league, and the Dufferins, second-place in the Dewdney League, should supply plenty of top calibre competition.

Wednesday's tournament will see two more teams from this Dewdney League, rated as the top amateur league in B.C.—Port Coquitlam and South Burnaby.

The four clubs—Coquitlam, Burnaby, Oliver and Kelowna—play four games, two of them for position and two for money, with the final game starting at 8:00 p.m. under the lights. This is a departure from the eight-team, two-day tournament of former years, but the mid-week position of the holiday made it a necessity.

In order to accommodate the U.S. teams that have always sought entrance to the Orchard City tourney, the Labs will run an Independence Day tourney on Saturday, July 4, the U.S. holiday, with Spokane Builders, Bellingham Bells, Almira and Kelowna taking part.

The Builders were victors in a recent tourney in Kimberley, and the semi-pro Bells walked off with the Kamloops Labor Day tourney last year. Almira has always brought a tough, competitive club to past tournaments, and the calibre should be first class for this tourney, as for the Dominion Day one.

And something new has been added for tonight's game that should make it a capacity house. President Rod Glen of the Credit Union, currently convening here, announced the ball game to delegates, lauding the baseball club and the park, and suggested to-night's game as a good way for delegates to relax.

We couldn't agree more.

ON THE SOFTBALL SCENE, the Orchard City this year will be the scene of the provincial championships, if all goes well, with King's Stadium all duded up for the occasion. The defending champion Club 13, however, will have to do some tail hustling in this tough league if they wish to defend their championship in person.

The defending interior champion Super-Volu Aces, the gals' team, have been rocketing along in their league in top spot, with only one loss on their record this season, and they will be thinking about play-offs one of these days soon.

The calibre of ball this year in King's Stadium and in the Rutland Park has been tops.

Why don't you take a look-see?

ALL SET TO MAKE A BIG "SPASH" on the Aquatic front is the swimming program conducted annually by the community organization for the kids of the community, and embodying adult swim classes, rhythmic swimming, Red Cross instructors' classes, diving classes as well this year.

All these wonderful Aquatic activities are supported by your membership, so make a note of it.

It begins to look as if the Dodgers finally have forgotten cozy Ebbets Field and have accepted the Coliseum, their fresh-ish ball yard, as a home.

Ebbets was no model of what a major league ball park should be of, of course, but the Brooklyn bandbox fit the Dodgers like a Burdet sweater. It was there that they put away their best string of pennants, winning four in five years from 1952 through 1956. They led the National League in home-park won - lost percentages while winning three of these flags.

Last year they shifted to Los Angeles and barely played .500 ball (.39-38) in the Coliseum

while finishing seventh.

LOOKING UP

That was last year. At the moment they're 22-16 at the Coliseum for a .579 percentage that ranks second only to Milwaukee's

.636 (.21-21), and the Braves are leading the league any way you look at it anyway.

The Dodgers made it eight out of 11 on their current home stand, which they started in 19th place, and swept their third straight from Philadelphia, Wednesday night, 9-6. That tightened their grip on third, just a game

4-0, in a game ended in the seventh inning by rain, after San Francisco had defeated Pittsburgh 4-3, Cincinnati whipped the Chicago Cubs 5-0.

MOON STILL SLUGGING

A two-run homer by Wally

Moon, extending his hitting streak to 17 games, broke a 6-6 tie in the sixth inning for the Dodgers, who had blown a 6-1 lead. Don Demeter drove in three runs for Los Angeles with a double, triple and his 15th homer.

Roger Craig, now 2-0 since his recall from the minors last week, was the winner with Clem La-bine's help. Wally Post and Valmy Thomas homered for the Jack place Phils.

Joey Jay, Milwaukee's young right-hander, gave up eight hits and three walks, but gained his first victory since May 19 after

Hank Aaron belted his 20th homer, with two on, in a four-run first.

Right-hander Jim Brossan (3-3)

blanked the Cubs on four hits by giving up nothing but singles.

The Reds backed him with a four-run first against loser Dick

Drott (1-2) after two were out.

Ed Bailey's two - run homer capped it.

A bases-loaded error by centrefielder Bill Virdon, whose single had given Pittsburgh a 3-3 tie in the top of the frame, gave the Giants the winning run in the ninth. Virdon dropped a bloop fly by pinch-hitter Leon Wagner

after colliding with second baseman Bill Mazeroski, Mike Cor-corick (15-7) was the winner, with Donnie Daniels (4-0) the loser, both in relief. The Buc's behind San Francisco and only three short of first - place Milwaukee.

The Braves retained their two-game lead by beating St. Louis

Record Entries In Queen's Plate

TORONTO (CP) — The luck of the post position draw probably will play a big part in next Tuesday's 100th running of the $50,000-added Queen's Plate classic, to be watched by the Queen and Prince Philip.

The three divisions of the plate trials were run off at Woodbine race track Wednesday and there still remains a possibility that the largest field ever will start in the 1 1/4-mile race for Canadian-bred three-year-olds.

Thirty entries raced in the $5,000 trials, the first and last of them wide-open affairs but the second won easily by Winnipeg shot in the sparkling time of 1:43.45 for the 1 1/4-mile distance.

The time was four-fifths of a second off the track record and division of the trials.

Tribe Goof O's Bunts, Sweat Half-Game Lead

There's something about a Baltimore bunt that makes Cleveland's Tribe dead Injuns.

Remember when the Orioles gained a share of the American League lead two weeks ago?

They did it when the Indians goofed twice on a bunt that scored three runs.

The Orioles were at it again

Wednesday night. They jumped into second place, a half-game behind the front - stumbling Indians, when an error on a bunt gave them three ninth - inning runs for a 7-4 victory at Cleveland.

FOUR SOLO HOMERS

It was the fifth defeat in seven games for the Indians while Baltimore, scoring its first four on solo homers by Gus Triandos,

Walt Dropp, Billy Gardner and

Bob Nieman, leap - frogged Chicago White Sox with its sixth victory in eight games.

The White Sox skidded to third with a 4-2 defeat by Washington

Senators. Kansas City Athletics

beat New York Yankees 4-3, Boston Red Sox held Detroit Tigers

in fifth place, handing the Tigers their fourth straight defeat with a 4-2 win.

The Orioles opened their winning ninth with singles by Gardner and pinch-hitter Gene Wood-ling that chased southpaw Herb

Score. Both scored when reliever Dick Brodowski threw wild after fielding a bunt by Bob

Boyd, hitting for winner Hec

Brown (5-2). Boyd went to third on the error and scored on a sacrifice fly.

THROWS SEVEN-HITTER

The Athletics stopped the Yankees behind the seven-hit pitching of southpaw Bud Daley (7-5).

Dick Williams figured in all the Kansas City runs, hitting a two-run homer in the fifth, against loser Jim Bronsted and singling for the clincher in the seventh.

Elston Howard hit a two - run

homie for the Yankees.

The last-place Senators beat the usually sure - fielding White Sox with three unearned runs in the ninth. Three singles plus two

Chicago errors tagged Dick Donnelly (4-5) with the defeat. Tex

Clevenger (4-1) was the winner in relief. Luis Aparicio, who singled and scored in the first, counted the other Sox run with an inside-the-park homer.

Don Buddin and Pete Runnels each had three hits for Boston in a win over the Red Sox, 7-3.

Against loser Don Mossi (6-2),

Mike Fornieles' perfect 2-3 innings saved it for Jack Harsh-man (2-6).

THE OLD HOME TOWN

By Stanley

YOUR HOROSCOPE

By ESTRELLITA

FOR TOMORROW

Restrictive influences of the past couple of days lift somewhat now, so you should have smoother sailing in most endeavors. Some situations which have been "hanging fire" for a time could also be happily solved under present configurations.

FOR THE BIRTHDAY

If tomorrow is your birthday, your horoscope indicates that you are lucky indeed.

According to the stars, there are five months within the next 12 which stand out as better-than-excellent for job, business and monetary affairs. These are July, October, November, December and February. Do take advantage of all opportunities available than to forge ahead, since the intermediate periods do no promise much in the way of either recognition or gain—and you'll have to balance "off" and "on" periods in order to "come out even." But you can do it—and profitably, too.

July, October and next January will be excellent for travel and, if you're single, the year ahead brings great promise of new romance and/or marriage. In this connection, your best months will be August, September, late October, December, next March and May. Generous influences will govern your domestic and social life for most of the year ahead, but don't counteract these happy prospects by losing tempers with loved ones—especially during September and late November. Unique creative enterprises launched in mid-December have an exceptionally good chance of succeeding before the end of March. A child born on this day will be endowed with a fine mind and will have great tenacity in the pursuit of goals.

OWN MOTHER'S DAY

FORT WILLIAM, Ont. (CP)—For the Franklin family Mother's Day is marked June 14 instead of the usual second Sunday in May. Three children of Mr. and Mrs. James Franklin were all born June 14. They are Jackie, 5; June, 4; and Patricia, 3. The Franklins have two other children.

Liberal Attempts To Debate CBC Resignations In Vain

By THE CANADIAN PRESS

Liberal have tried vainly in the House of Commons to draw the government into debate on charges of political interference with the CBC.

The charges were made by a number of top production personnel of the publicly-owned corporation's talks and public affairs department as they resigned in protest.

Paul Martin (L.-Essex East) started the discussion in the House by asking Prime Minister Diefenbaker whether a Ministerial statement would be made on the Progressive Conservative party, had registered a complaint with the CBC about political commentaries.

Mr. Diefenbaker said the CBC had its board of directors and any such questions should be directed to the proper source.

OPPOSES INTERFERENCE

Liberal Leader Pearson then asked what steps the government was taking to "remove the present threat to the effective existence of the CBC."

The prime minister said the former Liberal government and the Progressive Conservative administration had always taken a strong stand against any interference with the CBC and "I think that is the complete answer."

The mass resignations Tuesday and today followed cancellation of the three-minute radio series on House of Commons business called Preview Commentary.

Some of them said the administration had "bartered away the integrity of national broadcasting" by the decision which threatened the production of all opinion programs. They blamed the situation on CBC administration weakness at Ottawa which they said had existed since A. D. Dunton resigned as president a year ago.

DENIES CHARGE

Frank Peers, supervisor for TV and radio talks departments, charged that CBC acting president Ernest L. Bushnell cancelled the program because he had given into "political interference."

Mr. Bushnell blamed the incident on a misunderstanding in the minds of the program men and denied political interference.

Other developments today in the biggest upheaval in CBC history:

The Commons broadcasting committee decided to investigate the resignations, starting next Tuesday, and all but one member supported a motion that three senior employees who have resigned be invited to appear. Committee chairman G. Ernest Hapenny (PC-London) said "CBC management also should appear and the committee agreed."

Jim Taylor, a talks producer in Ottawa, resigned today, bringing to 32 the number of resignations in Toronto, Ottawa and Montreal.

World's Big Aluminum Firms Join

PITTSBURGH (AP) — Two of the world's largest industrial organizations, Aluminum Company of America and Britain's Imperial Chemical Industries, Ltd., have joined forces to expand the world market for aluminum.

Subject to British treasury approval, Alcoa and Imperial Chemical Industries plan to establish a new aluminum fabricating concern, Imperial Aluminum Co. Ltd. ICI would hold 51 per cent and Alcoa a 49 per cent interest in the new firm.

Alcoa, the world's largest producer of primary aluminum and wrought aluminum products, and ICI, one of the largest industrial organizations in the Commonwealth, expect Imperial Aluminum to begin operations by Aug. 1.

Imperial Aluminum then would operate ICI's expanded and modernized aluminum rolling mill and extrusion plant near Swansea, South Wales.

Previously Alcoa has made large investments in South America, Japan, Mexico, the Dominican Republic and Central America to broaden its foreign manufacturing and marketing activities.

Gaglardi Admits Toll Bridge Authority Head An American

VANCOUVER (CP) — Highway Minister Gaglardi says the acting superintendent of maintenance of toll bridge and tunnels in B.C. is an American citizen.

The statement that Paul A. Tondevold is not a Canadian was made last week by George Finlayson when he resigned as patrol sergeant on Lions Gate Bridge across Vancouver harbor. He made charges of patronage in the highways department. Mr. Gaglardi denied the charges then.

Mr. Gaglardi says Mr. Tondevold is a temporary employee who has been with the department for four years.

Permanent employees must be hired through the Civil Service Commission. Only Canadian citizens or British subjects are hired and they must swear allegiance to the Queen.

Mr. Gaglardi says it is not unusual for temporary employees to be retained for four years, particularly in the highways and forestry departments.

He said in an interview that Mr. Tondevold is only acting superintendent because it has not been decided whether it will be a permanent job.

If it was decided to make the post permanent, the civil service commission would handle the hiring and the job would be posted.

In an interview here Mr. Tondevold said he is an American citizen who came to Canada as a landed immigrant about four years ago. He had been "in and out" of B.C. for several years before that with private construction companies.

Mr. Gaglardi says regional engineer Dudley Godfrey first hired Mr. Tondevold as a construction superintendent.

Prince Opposed To "Keyhole" Photography

QUEBEC (CP) — Prince Philip told photographers covering the Royal Tour that he has no objection to them doing a job but he objects to what he described as "keyhole photography."

The Prince expressed his personal feelings during a reception aboard the Britannia for newspaper men and photographers on the Royal Tour.

He had an unusually good-natured bantering exchange with the press party and laughingly told the photographers he hardly knew when they weren't behind their cameras.

Then turning serious for a moment, he said he has no objection to any photographer doing a job but he had been "bloody nasty" with photographers that poke a long lens through a keyhole and intrude on my privacy."

The Queen chatted with reporters and some of them mentioned newspaper and magazine articles dealing with criticisms of the Royal Tour. The Queen said she is aware of the articles but feels the press is free to write what it pleases.

Lloyd Hopes For Berlin Settlement

LONDON (Reuters) — Foreign Secretary Selwyn Lloyd says he still hopes that some East-West agreement will emerge from the recessed foreign ministers' conference in Geneva.

"I do not regard the conference in any sense as having broken down," Lloyd said in a report to the House of Commons. "We go back to resume our efforts to negotiate some agreement."

"Failure to reach agreement so far is disappointing, but I intend to go on trying to the best of my ability."

Muir Calls Rate Ceiling Big Mistake

OTTAWA (CP) — James Muir, president of the Royal Bank of Canada, claims the six-per-cent interest ceiling on bank loans is a "great mistake."

He told the Senate finance committee that a "state of absurdity" would be reached if the rate on government treasury bills goes to six per cent or more.

In this case, there would be no point in a bank risking a loan at six per cent while it could put the money into treasury bills and earn six per cent or more.

Thus, Mr. Muir added, there should be no limit on the bank interest rate. He described the ceiling as a "straitjacket."

Last week the treasury bill rate was 5.47 per cent.

Both Mr. Muir and J. Douglas Gibson, general manager of the Bank of Nova Scotia, said the government should restrict federal spending to help overcome the fear of inflation.

Senator Thomas Crerar (L.-Manitoba) said government spending has increased "alarmingly" and that "it will pull us down into the morass if we don't check it."

In his brief to the committee, which is studying the threat of inflation in Canada, Mr. Muir said a federal deficit which involves a permanent rise in spending "makes inflation more difficult to control."

LONG-LOST RING

SHAWVILLE, Que. (CP) — Mrs. Adam Hodgins, 81, recovered a wedding ring she lost in her garden 47 years ago. Now a widow, she had since moved to a new home. But the ring was found by the new owner who was hoeing in the garden.

MPs Seek Prisons In Own Ridings

OTTAWA (CP) — Commons members from Alberta and British Columbia urge that federal penitentiaries be built in their constituencies.

During discussion of justice department spending estimates, Eldon Wooliams (PC-Bow River) and Murray McFarlane (PC-Kootenay East) said this would help the economy of their constituencies.

Mr. Wooliams said that in Drumheller, Alta., about 500 persons have been left idle by the closing of two coal mines and he urged that an institution be located there.

Mr. McFarlane asked for one for the Fernie area of B.C., saying it is well suited as a penitentiary location.

Justice Minister Fulton promised consideration of both requests. He said he expects to receive a report shortly from a committee studying prospective new sites.

The shire hall at Lancaster Castle in Lancashire, where witches were tried in 1612, is still used as a courtroom.
